

PRESS RELEASE
For Immediate Release

April 15, 2010

Contact: Dennise M. Kowalczyk
503-667-8848, ext. 335
dennise@kzme.fm

KZME RADIO FINDS A NEW HOME IN DOWNTOWN GRESHAM

(GRESHAM, OR) April 15, 2010 – KZME Radio is happy to announce the new location of its studios in downtown Gresham.

The radio station will occupy a storefront space at Third Central, located at 134 NW 3rd Street, Suite B in July 2010. A groundbreaking event will take place on Wednesday, April 28 from 5:30 pm to 7:00 pm at the new location. The community is invited to attend the event to see the studio design plans and enjoy some light snacks and beverages. The event will also include a short presentation by Cathy Anderson, board president, and Rob Brading, CEO, both of MetroEast Community Media / KZME Radio.

Dwight Unti, president of Tokola Properties, the owner of the site, shares that the company is extremely pleased and excited to have KZME as a new occupant at the location.

“We have been a strong supporter of the arts in Gresham and see the addition of KZME to downtown as creating an exciting new way to help connect the community to local arts and culture in the area”, says Unti.

KZME is a new radio station that is coming to the Portland metro area in 2010 and it will be dedicated to airing local music, east county public affairs and supporting local art and culture. More information about the station can be found at www.kzme.fm.

Third Central is owned by Tokola Properties. The company is a Gresham based development, construction and property management company focused on multifamily and mixed use developments in Oregon and Washington. The 34 unit transit oriented, mixed use development located in Historic Downtown Gresham and featuring a gated parking garage, controlled building access, elevator service and mountain views. More information can be found at www.tokolaproperties.com.

#####