Make It Happen: Carl Singmaster, Music Director

"I'm Carl Singmaster. My wife and I moved to Portland for bands, beers and bicycles. And we've been enjoying all three ever since.

When I found out that there would be a radio station devoted to the phenomenal music scene we have here in the Portland area I immediately signed up. As I learned more I also became a major donor. If you're ready for a great, non-commercial independent radio station focused on the phenomenal music scene here in the Portland metropolitan area I encourage you to sign up and donate too."

A brief bio about yourself

Husband/father/sysadmin/community radio DJ....My mom tells me that I had my first record player at the age of 3, and that I would listen to the "Oliver" soundtrack on it repeatedly. In 7th grade I won a coke can radio by selling newspaper subscriptions, and carried it with me everywhere, soaking in the sounds of top 40 (REO Speedwagon, Supertramp, Fleetwood Mac, Michael Jackson, M's "Pop Muzik") via AM station KFRC. In high school I discovered a whole new underground world of new wave and punk music via KQAK "The Quake" in San Francisco and have never been the same. I found an outlet for my obsessions as an adult doing college radio (KPSU) and later community radio (KBOO, and KZME!).

Your volunteer gig with KZME: programmer and all around great guy - why do you do this for us?

I love doing "Hello Cruel World" for KZME, I love being involved with a brand new station, and I love all the KZME folks: Dennise, Trent, Klyph, Carl...they are all a fine bunch of people and it is a blast working with them.

A few of your favorite local bands and/or venues...

Favorite venue: The Woods. Fave local bands include: Spoon, Viva Voce, The Shaky Hands. Fave local songwriters: Laura Veirs, John Vecchiarelli, Rachel Taylor Brown.

If you won a million dollars, what would you do with it?

In addition to lavishing my loved ones and cherished causes with the gifts they so deserve, I'd start a record label and finance reunion tours for some of my favorite defunct bands (most importantly, Pooka).
